

Apply for VA Survivor Benefits

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Choose VA

This guide will help you identify VA survivor benefits and services you may be eligible for after your Veteran loved one has passed. It provides information about the different VA survivor benefits and programs available, contact information, required forms, application process, and where to find assistance.

A checklist to help Veteran spouses and dependents apply for survivor benefits:

PREPARATION

- Learn about the survivor benefits and services that you and your family members may be eligible to receive (see back for list)
- Collect the documents necessary to apply for survivor benefits:
  - Veteran's Discharge paperwork (DD214 or other separation documents)
  - Veteran's death certificate (copy)
  - Proof of your relationship to the Veteran (marriage certificate, birth certificates)

APPLICATION

- Apply by submitting all required documents, including the applicable VA Form and the Veteran's death certificate, to the required servicing location (see back for more information) in one of these ways:
  - Mail to the appropriate VA office that serves your state. You can find the VA mailing addresses at <https://www.benefits.va.gov/compensation/maillingaddresses.asp>, OR
  - Work with an accredited Veterans Service Organization (VSO). You can find a VSO at <https://www.va.gov/get-help-from-accredited-representative/find-rep/>, OR
  - Go directly to your VA Regional Office (RO) for assistance. You can find your local RO at <https://www.va.gov/find-locations>.
  - For VA Life Insurance claims, call 800-669-8477.

NEXT STEPS

- Visit us online at <https://www.va.gov/claim-or-appeal-status/> to track the status of your claim.
- Provide more information or documentation (if requested by VA).
- If approved, take steps to access your awarded benefits.

WHERE CAN I FIND A VETERAN'S SEPARATION DOCUMENTS?

To find the separation documents of the Veteran, you can visit <https://www.va.gov/records/get-military-service-records> to request a copy of the DD214 or other separation documents of your loved one.

Surviving family members should make duplicate copies of all documents and retain them for their personal files before mailing them to a processing center.

Survivors can also receive free, in-person help preparing the claim from a VSO. Find an accredited VSO online by visiting: <https://www.va.gov/get-help-from-accredited-representative/find-rep/>.

Survivors can also receive free, in-person help applying for benefits at a VA Regional Office.

Information a spouse or dependent(s) will need to know to file a claim and receive the survivor benefits they may be eligible for:

How would a spouse or dependent(s) know if they are eligible for VA survivor benefits?

Surviving family members can access detailed information to determine if they are eligible for survivor benefits that may be available to them by:

OTHER QUESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE

As a surviving spouse, am I eligible for health care?

VA offers Civilian Health and Medical Program of Veterans Affairs (CHAMPVA) health care coverage to family members who meet specific eligibility criteria. CHAMPVA is a comprehensive health care program through which VA shares the cost of covered health care services and supplies with eligible beneficiaries in a manner similar to Medicaid and TRICARE. For more information, call MyVA411 (800-698-2411) or visit <https://www.va.gov/family-and-caregiver-benefits/health-and-disability/champva/>.

What is the difference between DIC and SBP?

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) is an entitlement benefit paid to eligible survivors (spouse, unmarried child or possible parent) of certain deceased Service members and Veterans who meet specific criteria. DIC is managed by VA. To learn more about DIC, please visit <https://www.va.gov/disability/dependency-indemnity-compensation>.

The Survivor Benefit Program (SBP) is a voluntary annuity program offered for purchase to service members as a retirement benefit for family members and is managed by the Department of War (DoW). Service members who die on active duty and who have never contributed to SBP are automatically covered. Participation in this program is voluntary and not all Service members opt to participate. To learn more about SBP, please visit <https://www.dfas.mil/retiredmilitary>.
